

Humphrey "Sugar" Nojoko, one of the star players to represent Easterns Rugby Football Club and SEDRU in the 1970s. He would later become Border Rugby Football Union's head coach.

Alistair "Toetie" Coetzee represented Mary Waters High School, EP Schools, Old Collegians Rugby Football Club and SEDRU in the 1980s at a tender age and would rise to become assistant coach to the South African Rugby Football team.

Quzaza Norman "Quiz" Xhoxho, one of the star players to represent Winter Rose Rugby Football Club and SEDRU in the 1970s.

Teddy Calvert, one of the Swallows Amateur Sports Club, Old Collegians Rugby Football Club and SEDRU players that had the tongues wagging.

