

Detentions protest November 29

Police arrested and charged 37 people who took part in a combined organizations' protest against detentions, standing out of sight of each other around Johannesburg. Of those arrested under the Riotous Assemblies Act, nine were Sash members.

Altogether some 50 people took part in the demonstration. All, like Cathy Jordi, above, had their posters seized by the police.

Beyers Naude (right) attended the lunch-hour remembrance service in St Mary's Cathedral.

photos: Gill De Vlieg