

ILRIG

INTERNATIONAL LABOUR
RESEARCH AND INFORMATION GROUP

Box 213 Salt River 7925 South Africa Telephone Cape Town (021) 698531 ext. 308

WORKERS OF THE WORLD SERIES
NUMBER 3

BRAZIL

LATIN AMERICA is often in the headlines these days, and many workers want to know what is happening there.

ILRIG's latest booklet looks at the story of trade unions in BRAZIL, the country with the biggest number of workers in Latin America.

It tells the story of SANTO DIAS who comes to the city from the rural areas and gets involved in union activities. It tells of the big strike movements of 1978 onwards, and how the army tried to stop the workers' struggles. It looks at the problems of unity and democracy in the trade union movement.

The struggle for independent democratic trade unions in Brazil has many lessons for workers in South Africa. This book discusses this.

A WORKER'S STORY

BRAZIL

Look out for the other 68 pages, over 50 illustrations, maps and cartoons books in this series:

- No.1 BOTSWANA
- No.4 INTERNATIONAL TRADE UNION ORGANISATIONS

Available now in English, soon in other languages. Books can be ordered from ILRIG:

- 30c each to unions and other organisations
- R2 each to salaried individuals
- R10 donor subscription for first 4 books in the series