

“White South Africa please know that you are deluding yourselves . . . if you think that the present ordering of society can continue.”

Blacks will be free whatever you do or don't do. Don't delay our freedom, which is your freedom as well, for freedom is indivisible.”

(Desmond Tutu, Bishop of Johannesburg)

