

There is prima facie evidence that a Third Force is operating within the command structure of the South African Police.

Some of the very people the NP have appointed to maintain law and order have now been accused of planning and carrying out acts of violence.

This confirms the ANC's consistent assertion that a Third Force is responsible for the violence. In the face of mounting evidence F.W. De Klerk and the NP failed to take responsibility.

We cannot afford any more of this. Our country needs a government that cares about peace.

The ANC's plan for peace will create a police service that is accountable. It will draw on men and women from all communities, so that they are better able to serve the people they are meant to protect.

We commend the many police officers who do their job with integrity. Let us work together to build a professional police service that respects human rights and upholds the constitution.

The National Party can't be trusted. They've had their chance. It's time for change. On April 27, vote for the ANC. We have a plan for a better life for all.

A better life for all. Working together for jobs, peace and freedom.
