DECLARATION

South Africa belongs to all who live in it, black and white, and no government can justly claim authority unless it is based on the will of the people.

We cannot accept any constitutional proposals that does not flow from a national convention of representatives of all the people of S.A.

For such a national convention to take place, all political prisoners must be released, exiles must return home and all persons and organisations must be unbanned and, unjust laws must be repealed.

We rededicate ourselves to fight side by side through genuine people's organisations until we have established a democratic South Africa.

Adopted at TASC Congress - Johannesburg, 23rd January 1983.

The people shall govern
