

BLACK SOLIDARITY COMMITTEE OF THE ANTI-APARTHEID MOVEMENT

EDUCATION for liberation

A conference on the role of the UK Black community in helping to transform education in Southern Africa.

Speakers: Gus John, representatives from the African National Congress, and the Front Line States, and many others

Saturday 3 April 1993

9.30 am to 5.00 pm at Camden Town Hall, Judd St, London NW1

£10 organisations, £5 individuals, free for unwaged. Creche available.

Organised by the
Black Solidarity Committee of the Anti-Apartheid Movement.

For more details, contact Claire McMaster,
AAM, 13 Mandela St, London NW1 ODW. (071) 387 7966.

