RICK TURNER
BANNED
NO PASSPORT

Is thirty one years of age. Rick obtained a B.A. Hons. from the University of Cape Town and then studied for a doctorate on Sartre at the Sorbonne. He has been a senior lecturer in Political Science at UND since 1970, and has published quite widely including "The Eye of the Needle", a critical analysis of the social and economic structure of S.A.'s capitalistic society. Dr. Turner was elected to the NUSAS Advisory Panel in 1971 - the advisory panel acts as a group of persons at each campus centre who make themselves available to the National Union should it require advice on any issue. Advice is therefore given at the request of the National Union - these positions are not used in order to manipulate the National Union.
